

EMDR ADVANCED TRAINING

Thinking AIP and Using EMDR

TRAINING ID: A-2503

START DATE:

JULY 25, 2025

PLACE:

ONLINE

The Center for Excellence in EMDR Therapy

Training Overview

This course is for EMDR therapists who want to strengthen their AIP case conceptualization skills by distinguishing between the client's symptoms and the root causes of their problem. In this 12 CE- hour course you will learn how to apply the clinical themes of Responsibility/Defectiveness, Safety/Vulnerability, and Power/Control while also exploring the client's sense of belonging, using an attachment lens to better understand the client's adaptations to their problem. This course is both didactic and interactive, with ample time devoted to reviewing and discussing cases in small groups using videotaped excerpts of actual clients. You will take your skills to the next level regardless of where you are in your journey with EMDR therapy.

Preparing for Your Training Experience

This online training consists of lecture, discussion, and review of client video segments, giving you ample opportunity to ask questions in this live, online format. It is recommended that you prepare a private space from which to participate that is free from distractions for everyone's benefit, and that you have a good internet connection with a backup plan.

Overall Training Objectives

1. Develop a working understanding of the Adaptive Information Processing (AIP) model of EMDR therapy
2. Identify the three clinical themes of Responsibility, Safety and Choices to better understand the client's difficulties
3. Distinguish between the client's symptoms and their problem
4. Learn how to work with your client to develop a mutual understanding of the root causes of their difficulties
5. Explore how a client's sense of belonging may have been impacted by their formative attachment experiences
6. Identify one or more adaptations the client has developed in response to their problem attachment repair

7. Develop an AIP-informed treatment plan using the mutual understanding of the client's problem
8. Identify and apply specific EMDR treatment protocols based on client and clinical variables
9. Identify and strengthen adaptive responses to present-day life demands
10. Identify one or more ways to help the client understand their problem through an AIP lens

Eligibility

This training is for mental health professionals who have completed the EMDR Basic Training, are licensed for independent practice, or on a licensing track under supervision. It is recommended that you have at least six months of practice experience using EMDR with your clients in order to fully benefit from this course.

Application Process

All applications are submitted online via the website registration portal for review. There is a non-refundable, non-transferable fee of $75 that is included in the price of tuition. See refund and cancellation policy below for more details.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

Tuition is refundable up to 30 days in advance, less a $75 administrative fee. If you cancel within 30 days of the training date, the balance less the administrative fee, will be applied as a credit towards a future training. A request for cancellation must be submitted in writing by email to admin@emdrtherapy.com. If you must withdraw once the training begins, there is no partial credit or refund. The Center reserves the right to cancel or reschedule the training at its discretion and will either credit one's tuition towards a future training or offer a full refund.
